

David graduated from Forest City Community High School and then Waldorf College with an AA degree in History. After a brief stint at the University of Alaska/Fairbanks, he attended the University of Northern Iowa, receiving a BA degree in Physical Education/Teaching.

He is self-employed as owner of Passport Media Creations, a marketing/video production company based in Clear Lake specializing in corporate communication solutions. "Although my business has taken me all over the world to some exciting locations, nothing has the charm and warmth of Clear Lake!"

Hobbies include home improvement projects, entertaining friends, gathering wine (some call it collecting, but it never stays collected!) and spending lot's of "play time" with his two granddaughters - Madelyn and Grace Hartnett.

David and his wife Diane Wilson are active members in numerous projects in the area such as the Chamber of Commerce, volunteers for the Fourth of July parade, bingo tent, and several other chamber and city events.
