

Shane was elected to the council in 2005 to serve a two-year term, which represents the remainder of the vacated first ward term.

After graduating from Clear Lake High School, Shane attended the University of Northern Iowa ultimately transferring to Buena Vista University where he graduated with a BA degree in business management.

Shane's wife, Kelly, is a kindergarten teacher in the Clear Lake School System where their son Wil is a 1st grade student. Their daughter Riley, 4, would love to be in kindergarten but for now will have to settle for pre-school.

As a financial advisor with Raymond James & Associates, Mr. Cooney's duties center on advising clients on the prudent management of their investment assets.

Shane views community service as an essential part of being a community member. He has been an active member of Habitat for Humanity of North Central Iowa, currently serving as Vice President of the Executive Board. He has served the Clear Lake Parks and Recreation Board, most recently as Vice-President. Mr. Cooney was also a founding member of the Clear Lake/Ventura Area Community Foundation board of directors.
