

Chief Peterson filled the position as Police Chief for the City of Clear Lake in November of 2006. He grew up in the Rochester, Minnesota area and graduated from Stewartville High School in 1969 after which time he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. He married his wife Kathy near the end of his enlistment and was honorably discharged in 1972 as which time he and Kathy returned to Minnesota.

Greg began his career in law enforcement with the Olmsted County Sheriff's Office in Minnesota in January of 1974. Over the span of his 34 year career, he has served as a deputy for the Porter County Sheriff's Office in Valparaiso, Indiana; Police Chief for the town of Burns Harbor, Indiana; deputy for Dodge County, Minnesota; and for the last 18 years he had served in several capacities with the Dakota County Sheriff's Office in Hastings, Minnesota, most recently as the Commander of Operations.

Greg holds a four-year degree from Fairhaven Bible College. He is a graduate of the School of Staff and Command through Northwestern University and is also a graduate of the FBI Law Enforcement Executive Development Association Command Institute.

Greg and his wife Kathy live in Clear Lake. They have four children and four grandchildren who reside in Minnesota.